Privacy policy

How we handle data and communications (v1.0.9).

We keep data collection minimal. We use your information only to deliver access, provide updates, and support the product.

What we collect

- Your email address (via Gumroad purchase and/or support).
- Your TradingView username (for invite-only access provisioning).
- Support messages you send us (to resolve issues).

What we do not do

- We do not sell your personal information.
- We do not run behavioral tracking pixels on this site.
- We do not share your TradingView username publicly.

Third parties

Payments are processed by Gumroad. TradingView is used to provision invite-only indicator access. Their privacy policies apply to their services.
