How we handle data and communications (v1.0.9 / v1.4.3)

We keep data collection minimal. We use your information only to deliver access, provide updates, and support the product.

What we collect

- Your email address (via Gumroad purchase and/or support).
- Your TradingView username (for invite-only access provisioning).
- Support messages you send us (to resolve issues).

What we do not do

- We do not sell your personal information.
- We do not run behavioral tracking pixels on this site.
- We do not share your TradingView username publicly.

Third parties

Payments are processed by Gumroad. TradingView is used to provision invite-only indicator access. Their privacy policies apply to their services.
